Laboratory Procedures

(±)17-HETE is supplied as a solution in ethanol. To change the solvent, simply evaporate the ethanol under a gentle stream of nitrogen and immediately add the solvent of choice. Solvents such as ethanol, DMSO, and dimethyl formamide purged with an inert gas can be used. (±)17-HETE is miscible in these solvents. (±)17-HETE is soluble in 0.1 M Na2CO3 at a concentration of approximately 2 mg/ml.

(±)17-HETE is sparingly soluble in aqueous buffers. For maximum solubility in aqueous buffers, the ethanolic solution of (±)17-HETE should be diluted with the aqueous buffer of choice. The solubility of (±)17-HETE in PBS (pH 7.2) is approximately 0.8 mg/ml. We do not recommend storing the aqueous solution for more than one day.

Description

Electrolyte and fluid transport in the kidney are regulated in part by arachidonic acid and its metabolites. (±)17-HETE is the racemic version of a cytochrome P450 (CYP450) metabolite of arachidonic acid that has stereospecific effects on sodium transport in the kidney. At a concentration of 2 µM the (S)-enantiomer of 17-HETE inhibits proximal tubule ATPase activity by as much as 70%, whereas the (R)-isomer is inactive.¹
