(-)-Levamisole (hydrochloride) (Item No. 14874) is an analytical reference material categorized as an imidazothiazole. It is used as a cutting agent with cocaine, and levamisole-adulterated cocaine has led to cutaneous vasculopathy in some individuals.1-3 This product is intended for research and forensic applications.

This product is qualified as a Reference Material that has been manufactured and tested to ISO/IEC 17025 and ISO 17034 international standards for reference materials.

References